2021 JANUARY/FEBRUARY SERMON SERIES

SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINES

FOR ORDINARY PEOPLE

JAN
10

SERMON:

The Practice of Celebration

Nehemiah 8:9-12

Rev. Kory Wilcoxson

The thought of a "spiritual discipline" may conjure up images of a monk in a brown robe praying 23 hours a day or a religious zealot living in poverty as a missionary in a third-world country. But actually, spiritual disciplines are simply ways we stay in relationship with God. They are disciplines because we have to intentionally focus on practicing them. As we do, we become closer to the people God created us to be. After all, the word "discipline" comes from the same root as "disciple." In this sermon series, we're going to look at some disciplines that we can practice every day as we go about our lives. 2020 was a challenge to our faith in many ways, so 2021 represents a fresh start as we seek to grow in our relationship with Christ. Join us as we learn how we can practice these spiritual disciplines - no brown robe required!

RECONCILIATION SUNDAY JANUARY 17

Some Pharisees from the crowd told him, "Teacher, get your disciples under control!" But he said, "If they kept quiet, the stones would do it for them, shouting praise." Luke 19:39-40

The Rocks Are Crying Out: Show Up, Speak Up, Stand Up reminds us that, like those first-century disciples following Jesus into Jerusalem, we must lift our voices to acknowledge the divine message and the divine messenger that is Christ with us. We are the ones to break the silence of oppression and suppression of human dignity. We, too, are compelled to "stand up" to witness to Christ's profound love on behalf of those who are without hope because of historic oppression in our communities. Your generosity to Reconciliation Ministry strengthens the work and witness of congregations to be the vicarious presence of Christ where we serve. Your giving promotes programs that provide anti-racism and pro-reconciliation education. Your generosity strengthens our voice to shout "Hosanna, Hosanna, blessed are WE, the ones who come in the name of the Lord!" We thank you in advance for your generous giving on Reconciliation Sunday, January 17!
