WORSHIP UPDATE

It has been such a joy to be back in worship with you these last few weeks! We are looking forward to continuing to worship together as we seek to find our "new normal." The CDC's latest guidelines loosening the restrictions on mask wearing and social distancing has caused us to update our Sunday morning practices. We hope these new guidelines begin to move us back to worshipping together in meaningful and substantive ways. As always, your feedback is welcomed and your grace and patience are appreciated! Please read on to learn about our new guidelines for Sunday morning worship:

ATTENDANCE

You will no longer need to sign up ahead of time to attend worship, but we will ask that you sign in when you arrive on Sunday morning. There are no restrictions on how many services you can attend. Y'all come!

MASKS

While we know that most of the congregation is vaccinated, we are aware of certain populations who either are not eligible for the vaccine or have chosen not to get it for various reasons. Therefore, we are still encouraging the wearing of masks, but for those who are vaccinated, mask-wearing is optional. We do request that those who are un-vaccinated and children ages 3 and older continue to wear masks. All worship participants will continue to wear masks.

SEATING

For the time being, we will continue to encourage social distancing in seating. Please be mindful when sitting in the vicinity of someone else, recognizing that they may not be comfortable with having someone sit near them. Common sense and courtesy will be our friends as we move forward.

CHILDREN'S TIME

Starting this Sunday, we'll be reinstating Children's Time during the 10:45 a.m. worship service. Because our young population is not eligible to be vaccinated, we do ask that all children remain masked during their time at church, including during the Children's Time.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING

Our organist, Jane Johnson, is on vacation until the first part of June. So, starting June 6, we will be reinstating congregational singing in the worship service. We strongly encourage anyone who wants to sing to be masked while doing so, even if they are not masked during other parts of the service. This will ensure the safety of those around you while you're singing.

COMMUNION

This is the hardest one because we now realize our pre-pandemic practice of sharing communion was not very sanitary. One good sneeze could contaminate a whole tray of bread or juice! For now, we will continue to have worshippers pick up the pre-packaged communion cups on their way into the sanctuary. In the meantime, we'll be exploring ways of making communion a more communal experience while still keeping people safe.

CHOIR

The choir will begin rehearsing in June, so we can look forward to seeing them again in worship very soon.

MAUREEN HOWELL LEAVING

We are saddened to inform you that Maureen Howell, our Office Administrator and Pianist, will be leaving us to move to Raleigh, NC. She and her husband, Warren, have accepted jobs at First Baptist Church. We are so excited for them and this opportunity to work together on the same church staff as Minister of Music and Organist/Music Assistant! Praise God! But we are so sorry to lose such a capable, compassionate member of our church family.

Maureen's last day will be June 6. There will be a reception for her from 9:30-10:30 a.m. in Chalice Hall that morning. We encourage you to bring cards and gifts to express your appreciation for all she has done for Crestwood. If you cannot attend that morning but want to send a card, please send it to the church office in care of Kory. We thank Maureen for her faithful work at Crestwood and wish her and Warren all of God's blessings on this new adventure!
