A WORD FROM KORY

I had lunch with a retired minister the other day, and his first question was, “How’s the church doing?” I paused for a second and said, “I think we’re doing well.” He responded, “You think? You’re the pastor! Don’t you know?” And I said, “It’s hard to know these days how the church is doing. Things are different in so many ways.”

I was reading back over my Crest articles for this year, and it seems like just about every month I said, “Well, it looks like we’re almost back to normal.” Ah, the challenge of being an eternal optimist! Every month it seemed like there was reason to have hope for a return to “normal,” and every month we faced challenges that made it seem like “normal” would never happen again.

So, I’m going into the rest of the year assuming that this is the way it’s going to be for the foreseeable future. A mix of online and in-person worshippers. Mid-week gatherings via Zoom. Continued encouragement of mask-wearing and safe practices. This is our world now, and until someone a lot smarter than me with a bunch of science degrees tells me differently, I’m going to keep doing what it takes to keep myself and others safe.

Thankfully, I know just about all of you feel the same way. I’ve been so thankful to see a mask on almost every face on Sunday morning. Crestwood, we are doing our part to be the church in the midst of these challenging times. We’re still worshipping, serving, and learning. The church is still open. God is still at work in our midst. So how is the church doing? I think we’re doing great!

We’re in the middle of a sermon series taking a closer look at our vision and mission statements. The call to “connect people to God and each other” has never been more important or more needed. As we seek to live out those statements, we do so with a clearer call to be God’s people in this world, welcoming, accepting, inviting, encouraging, caring, and serving in Jesus’ name. Although doing these things make look different post-COVID, we are still committed to doing them in order to be faithful to God’s path for us.

We’re also in the middle of our Stewardship Campaign. The theme, “What’s your reason?” invites you to consider where your hope comes from and how you respond to that hope. God has walked this journey with us, comforting us, protecting us, grieving with us, and pouring out God’s grace on us. We have been challenged but our hope has not wavered.

The Stewardship Campaign is an invitation for us to use the gifts God has given us to provide hope for others. While the nature of what it means to be the church might be in flux, God’s promises haven’t changed. Now more than ever, we need to provide a positive, steadfast witness to God’s continuing work in this world. One of the ways we do that is by committing some of our money to help Crestwood fulfill its vision and mission.

I can’t pretend to know what 2022 holds for us, but I know one thing: God will be there. Whatever new challenges we face, God will be with us. Your commitment to Crestwood through your pledge, your attendance, and your participation testifies to the fact that the church is indeed doing well. So, I want to encourage you to renew your commitment to Crestwood (if you have pledged before) or make a decision to commit your pledge for 2022 (if you haven’t). Your pledge not only helps us budget wisely for 2022, it stands as a personal statement of faith, that you have hope in the midst of all this world is throwing at us right now.

How is the church doing? As I talk with you, as I see you in Bible studies and weekly gatherings, as we greet each other on Sunday morning, as I look into the camera and know you’re watching, I can say with confidence that the church is doing very well. We are so blessed! Now, through our pledges, let us be a blessing to others.

TRISH TALK

Dear Friends,

I hope this finds you well and enjoying the beginning of autumn. The beauty of creation during this season is renewing! I saw a sign that said, "Fall is a reminder that change can be good!" During this season, let us focus on the Creator and the beauty and the lessons of creation.

Last month, I attended the Wild Goose Festival. It was four days filled with workshops, lectures, sermons, worship, and lots of music. There is an eclectic offering of topics and forums—topics and presentations as diverse as the presenters. I want to share with you one of the powerful moments for me. Sunday morning, one of the speakers was Rev. Dr. James Forbes. When I saw he was listed on the program, I assumed it must be the son of the Dr. Forbes. I had met him when I was a student at LTS because the Dr. Forbes I had met would be at least 85. It was THE Dr. Forbes and he turned 87 on Labor Day. He stood before us as a man of faith with the same commanding presence that I had first encountered thirty plus years ago. His body may have aged but his passion was as strong as it has ever been. He told us he had a Divine Appointment... let that sink in. Imagine knowing that God had a mission for you...even if you are 87 years old. When God is doing the work, there is no age limit. When God is at work, there are no limitations. Dr. Forbes began to lay out his call. It is a lofty call. It is a Spirit sized call— one that a mere mortal, no matter the age, could not accomplish. And there on the stage, in front of hundreds of people, this man claimed his Devine Appointment and invited us into the Spirit's work. For now, I want to claim the reality witnessed in this moment: God is not limited by our limitations. God continues to work in and through us as long as we are open. We are the Church, the body of Jesus Christ here and now, Spirit led and fed, for the living of these days! I invite you to be in prayer to discern what work Spirit is calling you to do. Do you have a Devine Appointment?

Blessed to share the journey.

Everyone is welcome!

FALL SERMON SERIES

"Slaves, obey your masters." "Women should be silent in church." "Wives, submit to your husbands." Who would say such divisive, prejudiced things? How about the Apostle Paul! These verses can be found in Paul's letters in the New Testament. That's right, they are in the Bible! For our fall sermon series, we're going to be taking a look at some of Paul's more controversial statements to see what, if anything, they have to say to us today. We hope you'll be part of the conversation as we dive into scripture to sort through "The Problem with Paul."

Oct. 24 – The Problem with Paul

Oct. 31 – Paul and Slavery

Nov. 7 – Was Paul a Sexist?

Nov. 14 – Husbands, Wives, and Paul

CELEBRATION SUNDAY FOR STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN

On Sunday, Oct. 10, we'll celebrate God's generosity and the end to our 2021 Stewardship Campaign. We'll encourage all those worshipping in person to bring their pledge card, which we'll collect during our time of offering. This is a wonderful way to tangibly give thanks to God for all our blessings and to support God's work through Crestwood. If you are not attending in person, or won't be present Oct. 10, you can mail your pledge card to the church or email your 2022 pledge amount to financialsecretary@crestwoodchristian.org. If you need a pledge card, call the church office and we'll get you one. Thank you so much for all the ways you "give your reason" for the hope God has given you through Jesus Christ.

HUNGRY FOR GOD LUNCH GROUP

Looking for a way to connect to God and your church family? Kory will lead a virtual small group called “Hungry for God.” Each week, we’ll take a religious word (“grace,” “forgiveness,” “faith”) and explore its deeper meaning. This group is designed for people who want a midday time to take a breath, share a conversation, and grow closer to God. If you’re at work, you can take your lunch break and log on. If you’re at home, fix yourself something to eat and join us! Wherever you are, we hope you’ll take a few moments during your day to connect with us. A link will be sent out every Tuesday morning as a reminder.

THE RETURN OF CRESTWOOD UNIVERSITY!

We are called to be life-long learners on this journey of faith, and we are pleased to announce the return of Crestwood University, a wonderful way for you to continue growing in your faith. The classes will be called “Connecting with God,” and will feature a series of conversations about different spiritual disciplines that help us grow in our faith and connect with God. The classes will be hybrid, meaning you can attend in person or on-line (a link will be provided at a later date). The classes will be:

Oct. 3 – NO CLASS

Oct. 10 – Walking

Oct. 17 – Boards and Bowls: Tools for Connecting

Oct. 24 – Spirituality for Extroverts

BLESSING BOX

Every day folks are finding proof that God cares for them and that God is meeting their needs through our Blessing Boxes! Both the box at the south wing entrance and the one at the Winburn Church of Christ are feeding those who would go hungry. You can help by continuing to bring in boxed and canned foods, toiletries, and personal care items. We have plenty of Mac-N-Cheese, but are always in need of beans, rice, pasta, canned pasta sauce, canned vegetables and fruit, cereal, canned meats and fish, peanut butter, jelly, bread, crackers, toilet paper, laundry and dish detergent, toothpaste, and toothbrushes.

UK FOOTBALL PARKING

Are you planning on attending UK football games this season and need a place to park? Park at Crestwood Christian Church. .....Notes of Thanks.....Notes of Thanks.....

Dear Rev. Wilcoxson and Friends,

On behalf of Christian Care Communities, we want to thank you for the gift we received on 8/12/2021 in the amount of $2,860 from the Lollis Fund and dedicated to the Back Porch project at our Corbin Community.

It's because of your generosity, that we are able to fund special projects for the beautiful souls who call Christian Care their home. These beautiful souls have supported many of us for our entire lives, serving as the foundation of our own families and friendships we have nurtured. They taught us what it means to sacrifice and love unconditionally, filling us with happiness and sweet memories to carry in our hearts forever.

Christian Care has supported countless beautiful souls for 137 years and their life-changing influence is immeasurable. Each year, over 5,000 older adults receive housing, nursing care and dementia support in our 10 communities across Kentucky. Having your support and confidence means you believe in the work of our mission and the impact you will have on the future of older adults we serve.

As always, we are grateful for your prayers and support and your generosity in helping to make the Back Porch project possible. We look forward to sharing updates and photos of our residents using this wonderful space.

With a grateful heart,

Mary Lynn Spalding	James W. Patton, LL.M, MDiv, FCEP
President and CEO	Vice President
Advancement	General Counsel

Dear Friends,

Since our doors opened in 1884, friends like you have helped offer older adults an unprecedented level of care. WE would like to share a few words of gratitude from our residents:

"I love my new home! Thank you for caring about me."-

Ruth Anne

"Thank you for giving me a place to call home." - Tom

"I am so grateful for the friendships I have made. I'm no longer alone." - Gene

More people than ever need the strength and comfort of Christian Care Communities' important services. With your gift of $887.00, you join others who have made a commitment to help our mission of enhancing the journey of life for Older Adults.

To learn more about what your support helps make possible, we encourage you to visit us online at www.ChristianCareCommunities.org and sign up for our e-newsletter. Thank you for partnering with us to enhance the journey of life for Older Adults.

In His Service,

James W. Patton, LL.M, M.Div.

Vice President- Mission Advancement and General Counsel

Dear Friends of LTS at Crestwood Christian Church,

The Lexington Seminary community is blessed by your generosity and kindness. We thank you for valuing the work of the Seminary and joining with us in preparing men and women for service in Christ's church.

When students reflect upon their opportunity to attend LTS, words can't describe how enthusiastic and appreciative they are to be in the Seminary's Master of Divinity program. If they could speak to you face-to-face, they would thank you for helping make their seminary education possible. So, on their behalf, thanks for your partnership and gift of $1,712.21.

Sincerely yours,

Mark V. Blankenship

Vice President for Advancement

To My Dear Crestwood Family, Choir, Trish, and Kory -

Thank you so much for all your caring cards, calls and the beautiful flowers that brighten our days. How can I forget the wonderful food that nourished our soul and body?

Fred and I enjoyed all the visits. It was such a blessing to see each of you and spend time with you.

Trish was wonderful! We have adopted her into our family.

Her presence at surgery and during the whole process was a comfort to Fred during the long nursing venture. He was the best caregiver!

We are so blessed to be part of this loving church family.

Much Love and Thanks,

Alma and Fred Kidd

FALL WORKDAYS AT CAMP WAKON' DA-HO

Friends of Camp Wakon' Da-Ho, please mark your calendars for Saturday, October 16th and Saturday, October 23 and join us for workdays at camp. Due to the COVID pandemic, we have not been able to host a true camp workday since the fall of 2019 and the campus is showing signs of neglect. Your help will make a huge difference.

In addition to our usual tasks of putting things away for the winter, cleaning and purging, there are some special projects that we need to take on. Several cabins need new doorframes and thresholds. We must repaint the interior of the Directors cabin and it needs the outdoor window sills painted. Carpentry repairs are needed all over the campus. There are a few trees that have fallen and need to be turned into campfire wood. Also, some landscaping work needs to be done.

If you have folks in your congregation with the skills and tools necessary to tackle these jobs, please invite them to join us at camp. A lunch of sandwiches will be provided, however, if you want to brown bag because of COVID-19, we understand. Please email Dave Carr at dave@ccinky.net to let him know who is coming or if you have any questions or suggestions.

Unfortunately, this has to be a day event. We cannot accommodate overnight guests. I hope to see you on October 16th, or 23rd, or both.
