ADVENT SERMON SERIES: THE PROMISE OF CHRISTMAS

The power of the Christmas season is that it is pregnant with the promises of Emmanuel, the hope that God will become one of us and show us in new ways God's transformative power. How might Christmas be different for us this year if we look back at those promises and what they mean for us today? For our Advent sermon series, we'll be looking at the word of the prophets about the coming of Jesus, and how those promises can change our understanding of the challenges of this world. Join us for Advent as we lean into God's promises and await the birth of the Christ Child!

Dec. 5 - Isaiah 9 - The Promise of Peace

Dec. 12 - Service of Lessons and Carols

Dec. 19 - Isaiah 11 - The Promise of Light

A WORD FROM KORY ...

Can you believe it's Advent already? Even though this season always sneaks up on me, I'm so excited that it's here. Some of my favorite moments of the year happen during Advent, and we're already off to a wonderful start with a decorated sanctuary and a Spirit-filled worship on Sunday. Hopefully, we are beginning to focus on our journey to Bethlehem.

Much ink has been spilled lamenting the loss of Christmas to cultural consumerism, so I won't belabor that point. But I will say that church should be the one place that continues to lift up the joy and hope of Christmas in order to transcend all the cultural debris. As followers of Christ, we have to stay keenly aware of the ways we can proclaim the good news of Christmas in a peaceful, persistent voice.

I read a book that can help us with that. It's called "The Advent Conspiracy," and the purpose is to help us recapture the spirit of Christmas in our daily lives. The authors believe Christmas can still change the world if we are willing to let the meaning of the season guide our thoughts and actions. As the book says, "It's not enough to say 'no' to the way Christmas is celebrated by many; we need to say 'yes' to a different way of celebrating."

The book gives four different ways we can proclaim the good news of Christmas this year, and I believe they are worth sharing:

1 - Worship Fully - It starts with Jesus. It ends with Jesus. This is the holistic approach God had in mind for Christmas. It's a season where we are called to put down our burdens and lift a song up to our God. It's a season where love wins, peace reigns, and a king is celebrated with each breath. It's the party of the year. Entering the story of advent means entering this season with an overwhelming passion to worship Jesus to the fullest. 2 - Spend Less - What was the one gift you remember getting for Christmas last year? What about the fourth gift? Do you remember that one? Truth is many of us don't because it wasn't something we necessarily wanted or needed. Spending less isn't a call to stop giving gifts; it's a call to stop spending money on gifts we won't remember in less than a year. America spends around $600 billion during the Christmas season, and much of that goes right onto a credit card. By spending wisely on gifts we free ourselves from the anxiety associated with debt so we can take in the season with a full heart.

3 - Give More - I know what you're thinking. "Wait, didn't they just say I should spend less, and yet here they are telling me to give more?" The most powerful, memorable gift you can give to someone else is yourself. And nobody modeled this more than Jesus. So what does this look like for you? Tickets to a ball game or the theater? A movie night? The main point is simple: When it comes to spending time with those you love, it's all about quality, not quantity.

4 - Love All - It all boils down to love. Love from a savior. Love to a neighbor in need. By spending just a little less on gifts we free up our resources to love as Jesus loves by giving to those who really need help. It's not that there's something wrong with the shopping mall—it's that the better story is about loving all.

I hope these four tenets give you some ideas of how you can make Advent more meaningful this year. What I like about them is that they don't completely forsake participation in the spirit of Christmas, but encourage doing so in a way that honors Jesus Christ and focuses on what's important about the holiday. Christmas can indeed still change the world. It starts with each one of us. Merry Christmas, church family!

TRISH TALK

As we begin this holy season, I want to share a favorite poem written by Ann Weems:

In each heart lies a Bethlehem, an inn where we must ultimately answer whether there is room or not. When we are Bethlehem-bound we experience our own advent in his. When we are Bethlehem-bound we can no longer look the other way conveniently not seeing stars. not hearing angel voices. We can no longer excuse ourselves by busily tending our sheep or our kingdoms. This Advent let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that the Lord has made known to us. In the midst of shopping sprees let's ponder in our hearts the Gift of Gifts. Through the tinsel let's look for the gold of the Christmas Star. In the excitement and confusion, in the merry chaos let's listen for the brush of angels' wings. This Advent, let's go to Bethlehem and find our kneeling places.

Blessed to share this journey with you.

Trish

A Note from Finance Ministry Team

The Finance Ministry team recommended the 2022 Proposed Budget, included to the right, for approval at the November 17 Administrative Board Meeting. The Administrative Board approved the proposed budget and the 2022 Proposed Budget will be presented to the congregation for approval at a congregational meeting scheduled for Sunday, December 5.

The number of pledges received for 2022 was 115 compared to 132 in 2021. Due to the lower number of pledges approximately 29 % of the budget is based upon estimates of giving for 2022 compared to 23% of estimates of giving in the 2021 budget. We continue to receive two large pledges from two families.

Total receipts, which includes pledges and estimates and other receipts, e.g. use of building, are down from 2021 by 5.0%. The 2022 budgets for all the ministry teams remain the same or have decreased from 2021. The decrease in Personnel is due primarily to lower health insurance costs as fewer staff enroll for health insurance through Crestwood. Personnel has budgeted raises in 2022 for eligible staff.

Total Outreach giving is down by 7.6 %. The decrease is a result of the 5% decrease in receipts and the 0.51% decrease in the percentage of the budget allocated to Outreach. Budgeted Outreach giving for 2022 is $140,836 compared to $152,492 in 2021. The overall percentage allocated for outreach giving was decreased from 16.45% in 2021 to 15.94 % in 2022 (-0.51%).

Thank you to the members of Crestwood for providing the resources to Crestwood so that the Finance ministry team was able to recommend a balanced budget to the Administrative Board which sustains the work and mission of Crestwood. Thank you to the members of the Finance Ministry team for your service to Crestwood. If there are any questions, please feel free to contact me at (erwachtel@twc.com or 859-269-1665) or any member of the Finance ministry team.

Dear Friends

Earlier this month, thanks to your help, we moved a wonderful older couple into a furnished apartment in a community devoted to the wellbeing of our elders. No longer isolated, this couple is enjoying making friends and participating in activities.

Your prayers and support make it possible for us to be there for these families in their time of need. Thank you for your thoughtful donations to Christian Care Communities. Your gift ensures that older adults in our state thrive mentally, physically, and spiritually in a safe environment. We could not do what we do without thoughtful generous donors like Crestwood Christian Church.

Sincerely,

James W. Patton Vice President - Mission Advancement Christian Care Communities
