CRESTWOOD SUPPORTING NEWLY ARRIVED REFUGEES

Crestwood's World Outreach Team has received word from Kentucky Refugee Ministries that we have been matched with newly arriving refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo. We will be assisting 2 Congolese women, ages 24 and 61, who are friends, and will be living together. They are arriving with 2 Congolese men, with whom they are also friends. All have the same U.S. tie and all will be living in the same apartment complex. All four have been matched with supporting groups in the community.

Let us hold these folks in our hearts, and in prayer, as they begin new journeys in a new land. This will be the 13th refugee family for which Crestwood has provided direct assistance, with the first being in 1991.

If you would like to be part of a 'welcome to Lexington' group at the airport, please contact Dabney Parker (dabney@twc.com / 859-608-4655) to receive details about their arrival. Smiling faces of welcome make a wonderful difference when folks arrive in a new land! Help welcome the stranger!

PANCAKES & EASTER EGG HUNT!

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, STARTING @ 9 AM

Please join us on Saturday, April 16 at 9:00am for delicious pancakes, followed by craft time and an Easter Egg hunt at 10:00am for all children ages 0-5th grade.
