BAPTISM SUNDAY

APRIL 24

BAPTISM SUNDAY - APRIL 24

One of the most important decisions we will ever make in life is to give our lives to Jesus Christ by being baptized. We're excited that 14 of our young people have made that decision and will be baptized on April 24. Please make plans to join us at the 10:45 AM service as we baptize these wonderful people of our community. This is a special day for them and we want their whole church family to celebrate with them!

A WORD FROM KORY...

This year's Pastor's Class has been one of my all-time favorites. It's such an interesting mix of youth that come together each Sunday to learn about God and what it means to have faith. This year's group is so big (14 youth!) that I've had to divide them into two separate classes. We have introverts and extroverts, thinkers and doers, youth who sit nicely in their chair and...well, and some who don't. We have two sets of twins, and in both cases the twins are very much their own person. It has been such a joy to work with them.

One of the reasons I've enjoyed it so much is that, for several of these youth, I had the honor of dedicating them when they were babies. One of the blessings of my job is walking with people through different stages of life and rites of passage. It's hard for me to believe these babies I walked with down the center aisle of the sanctuary are now sitting in Pastor's Class getting ready to make their decision about baptism. Where does the time go?

It's amazing to me how these youth have grown, not only physically, but intellectually and spiritually. I can tell that these youth have come up through our Worship and Wonder program, because of the knowledge they display and the questions they ask. Their level of inquisitiveness and curiosity displays a depth of thought and curiosity well beyond their years. Crestwood, I believe we're doing a great job of making disciples!

For example, during our first class, I asked the youth this: "If you could ask God one question, what would it be?" We then spent about an hour going on a theological adventure that included reincarnation, the limits of the known universe, how Jesus could be both God and the son of God, ghosts, and a host of other topics. They are asking some of the same questions I wrestle with!

That's one sign of a vibrant faith: the willingness to ask questions. Some flavors of Christianity tell you that to question God is a sign of a weak faith. "God's ways are not our ways." And yet, when you read the Bible and look at our world, how can you NOT have questions? A growing faith is one that asks the questions and then seeks the answers. A stagnant faith is one that doesn't pay enough attention to even ask questions.

As we get closer to the end of the class, each youth will be given the opportunity to make their decision about baptism. There is no assumption or expectation that they will say "yes." I emphasize that this truly is each youth's decision to make on their own, and it's a big one. Giving your life to Christ through baptism fundamentally changes you, because it makes a public claim about what you believe. It doesn't mean you understand everything about your faith, but it does mean you are committing the rest of your life to figure out what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

So, Crestwood, will you join me in praying for these 14 youth as they prepare to make this decision? Pray that God's spirit stirs in their hearts and gives them clarity about the decision they face. I look forward to April 24, Baptism Sunday, when we celebrate this group and those who choose to give their life to Jesus Christ by entering the waters of baptism.

TRISH TALK

Dear Friends,

In a few weeks we will celebrate the glorious gift of Easter. Easter is proof that the sinfulness of humanity is no match for God's love and mercy. Hallelujah!

I don't know about you but I need this reminder this year more than I can remember needing it in the past. Maybe that is because of the devastation of Ukraine and the humanitarian crisis caused by Russia. Maybe it is the divisions in our country that are causing books to be banned, lines to be drawn, power to be grabbed and held onto at all costs, and other such signs of total disrespect for each other. Maybe it is still being raw after 2 years of Covid. It is easy to see the sinfulness of humanity these days. But that is not what defines us.

We are EASTER PEOPLE. We worship a God who does not let sin and death have the last word. We are claimed by God who redeems brokenness and brings new life. These are not just church words. This is the foundation of our faith. God continues to be at work in this world through people who do not bow to tyranny, through those who work for justice, those who speak for the voiceless and stand for the fallen. God empowers the church and the members of the Body of Christ to be the light bearers into any and all darkness.

Yes, in a few weeks we will sing with joy—"Christ the Lord is risen today!" May we be emboldened by that truth and may our actions, words, dollars, and efforts show that good news to our neighbors and to the world.

Blessed to share the journey,
Trish

A WORD FROM OUR NEW CHILDREN'S MINISTER

Greetings Crestwood Family! My name is Missy Wallace, and it is a joy to come serve as your new Children's Minister. Over the last fifteen years, I have devoted my career to loving and serving children across the central Kentucky area. I am passionate about helping children grow in their faith and teaching them that especially as children, they have the power to change the world by sharing the unconditional love of Jesus.

Whether it's playing in glitter or making paper airplanes, I love the confetti culture that celebrates the unique season of childhood. Some of the best life lessons I've learned have been shared over a scoop of mint chip ice cream or watching a child sacrificially give their treasures to help someone in need. Children continue to teach us so much about Christian leadership, and it is a blessing to share a part in their story.

My husband Kevin has been my ministry partner during our sixteen years of marriage and is particularly eager to worship with your beautiful organ music. Jacob is our teenage son who is active in football, archery, and scouts. Our adult children Madison, Rachel and Lacy are established in their careers but still make it home occasionally for family dinners. Abby, Chewy, and Curly are the fur members of the family and delight in showing affection on Sunday mornings, often leaving paw prints on our clothes as we leave for church.

We are incredibly excited to come to Crestwood and start this new chapter of our lives together. I look forward to meeting you and introducing you to my family. Thank you for welcoming us as we anticipate many years of making cherished memories.

CRESTWOOD SUPPORTING NEWLY ARRIVED REFUGEES

Crestwood's World Outreach Team has received word from Kentucky Refugee Ministries that we have been matched with newly arriving refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo. We will be assisting 2 Congolese women, ages 24 and 61, who are friends, and will be living together. They are arriving with 2 Congolese men, with whom they are also friends. All have the same U.S. tie and all will be living in the same apartment complex. All four have been matched with supporting groups in the community.

Let us hold these folks in our hearts, and in prayer, as they begin new journeys in a new land. This will be the 13th refugee family for which Crestwood has provided direct assistance, with the first being in 1991.

If you would like to be part of a 'welcome to Lexington' group at the airport, please contact Dabney Parker (dabney@twc.com / 859-608-4655) to receive details about their arrival. Smiling faces of welcome make a wonderful difference when folks arrive in a new land! Help welcome the stranger!

Notes of Thanks

Dear Crestwood Family and Friends,

Thank you from my family to my Crestwood family for all the cards, calls, food, and other offerings of condolences after the death of my husband. I continue to be amazed at the outpouring of concern from so many loving friends!

A public thank you goes to the Crestwood staff who made the visitation and service not only possible, but also humbling yet heart-warming for us.

Dear Crestwood Christian Church,

Crestwood Christian Church,

It was wonderful to be back home again this winter. Most people actually refer to GBL as the "Crestwood" league now. Thank you very much for all your support throughout the years. Look forward to seeing you again this summer.

Dear friends at Crestwood Christian Church,

Thank you for your recent donations to Kentucky Refugee Ministries (KRM) Lexington. Your support comes at a critical time. In recent months, KRM has seen a significant increase in the numbers of refugees and immigrants newly arrived to the country and to Kentucky.

The months and year ahead will be challenging. But we are grateful for the generosity and involvement of KRM Partners like you. Your actions and advocacy continue to affirm the values of welcome and inclusion, and to make KRM's work possible.

Sincerely,
Mary Cobb
Directory, KRM Lexington

Dear Friends of Crestwood Christian,

Thank you for your generous gifts that help nurture lives harmed by intimate partner abuse. Your care for our mission matters. As temperatures warm and flowers bloom, hundreds of survivors will find hope for better tomorrows at our emergency shelter, in regional courtrooms, and during support group meetings across our 17-county service area. We could not accomplish this difficult mission without people like you by our side.

In gratitude,
Darlene B. Thomas, M.S.S.W.
Executive Director of GreenHouse17

Dear Friends,

What a wonderful thing you have done! Your kind donation has been gratefully received at Christian Care Communities and is being put straight to good use. The simple truth is, at Christian Care everything we can do is because of supporters like you. It is your kindness - for an older adult who needs safe and affordable housing - means there is a place to call home. You help provide basic nutritional, medical and spiritual care. Many thanks to you!

Thank you for the light and hope you bring to seniors in our mission of care.
