ALL CHURCH FELLOWSHIP

SUNDAY, MAY 22 FOLLOWING 10:45 WORSHIP

All are invited to lunch as we kick off summer and send Kory off on sabbatical with our blessings! This is one of our first all-church celebrations since before the pandemic began, so this will be a special time to come together. May 22 is also Youth Sunday, so you won't want to miss out! No youth groups or meetings after service so that we can all join together as a church family. The event will have a catered Italian bar, taco bar, and salad bar. Plus we will have an ice-cream bar for dessert!

Thank you, Pastor Kory, for all of the ways you serve our Crestwood Christian Church family. We all love you and will be praying for you throughout your sabbatical. May the Lord bless you as you journey toward a restful and fun season, filled with Doctor of Ministry research, time to connect with loved ones, and time to connect with God.

A WORD FROM KORY...

It's hard for me to fathom that it is already time for my second sabbatical at Crestwood. My last sabbatical six years ago was magical, as a grant from the Eli Lilly Foundation allowed my family and I to travel a number of different places. It was a wonderful time of rest, rejuvenation, and connecting.

This sabbatical will be quite different from the last one. First of all, no one is giving me money to spend on travel! Second, the focus of this sabbatical is not only to take restful time away but to work on my Doctor of Ministry project, the last step to completing my degree. I hope to use the three months this summer to finish the project, or to at least get it well on its way to being done.

That doesn't mean I'll be tied to the computer the whole three months! Amy, the girls, and I still have some plans to travel and enjoy ourselves. Here's a snapshot of what we'll be doing:

May 23 – First day of sabbatical

May 28 – Molly graduates from high school

June 12-17 – High School mission trip to Raleigh, NC. This will be Molly's last youth mission trip and I'll be attending as a chaperone.

June 20-23 – I'll be attending a Pastor's Retreat at Church Creek near Charleston, SC. This center offers free-of-charge retreats to pastors and is sponsored by the church Amy attended when she lived in Charleston.

June 24-26 – Amy and I will be attending a friend's birthday weekend in Lake Lure, NC, the place where she and I first met.

July 9-17 – My friend Michael received the same Lily Grant this year for his sabbatical that I received in 2016, and he has planned a trip for us to go to Washington, D.C., and New York City.

July 25-30 – Amy and I will take a vacation to Siesta Key, FL.

August 18-19 – I'll be moving Molly into her new home at Grinnell College in Iowa.

August 22 – First day back in the office.

So, as you can see, we've got a big summer planned! I'm excited for Amy and me both to be off work so we can enjoy the summer together. Even with all the trips, I believe there will be enough downtime for me to make significant progress on my project. During my time away, you will be in good hands with Trish, Steph, Missy, and the rest of the staff. I know they have a wonderful summer planned for you and I'm sad to be missing it (but not so sad as to cancel my sabbatical!).

To make my time away a true sabbatical from all things church, I will be "going dark" on communications. I won't be answering emails, texts, or phone calls, and I'll be taking a break from social media. I learned last time that, in order for me to rest and restore, I have to completely disconnect. That's going to be so difficult for me because I love you all and will miss you so much, but after some of the toughest years in my ministry, I need the time away.

I can't thank Crestwood enough for providing this sabbatical for its ministers. I promise to use this time for its stated intentions: to work on my project; to allow my mind, soul, and body to rest; to reconnect with my family; and to spend time deepening my relationship with God. And I am already anticipating seeing you again when I return in August. God bless you, Crestwood!

TRISH TALK

Dear Friends,

A couple weeks ago while in WV visiting my family, I spent hours playing with my nephew, 7, and my niece, 3. It was quite a break from the weight of the state of the world. In our pretend worlds, all was well. No wars. No heartache. We traveled from kingdoms to campgrounds on our make-believe treks. The consistent thing was that our 3 year old nurturer made sure to keep us on a routine of meals and sleeping. We bedded down for “sleep” and awakened to “breakfast”. Other than the staples that a body needs: sleep and food, the other constant was a bedtime story. Each of us had to tell a story before we could fake snore our way to a pretend breakfast. Stories are as important to children as food and rest! At what age do we let stories lose their place of importance in our lives?

This summer we will be celebrating stories: our individual stories, our shared stories, stories Jesus told, sacred stories...

Each week in worship we want to have someone sharing part of their faith story. If you would be willing, please talk to me. It is important that we claim and share God’s work in our lives. We will have fellowship events with opportunities to share.

Stories connect us. When we spend time sharing our stories we find points of connection that go far beyond our politics, our ideology, our preferences. Stories help us to understand where we have been and it gives insight into who we are today. We may be Cats or Cards but we may find that both of our first jobs were the same. Connection.

Be thinking about your stories and stories you hold dear. They are important.

Blessed to share the journey,
Trish

YOUTH CORNER

May is upon us! I am so thankful for the wonderful Pancake Breakfast and Easter Egg Hunt we were able to have this year at Crestwood - what a joy to be able to bring back this beloved tradition! Thank you to all youth and adults who helped make it happen!

May brings us to a very exciting yearly event - Youth Sunday! This year it will be on May 22nd, at both services. The youth groups have been working hard to put together a liturgy and plan this special service, and I am very proud of what they have accomplished so far. We will be honoring several graduates this year, and holding them in prayer as they move into the next phase of their lives.

YOUTH CALENDAR FOR MAY

SHARE YOUR TIME & TALENTS AT CRESTWOOD

You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. - Matthew 5:14-16

Crestwood offers so many ways for each of us to connect to God and each other, whatever our talents and skills. What speaks to your heart -- teaching children? Helping to build a Habitat house? Serving on our local outreach team? Each of us has unique God-given gifts; at Crestwood, you can put those gifts to good use!

Watch the bulletin May 8 and 15 for a survey that will help find a way for you to shine your light. Simply fill out the sign-up form and put it in the offering plate, open the form with the QR code, or you can click on the link in our Time and Talents email to sign up online. You can either indicate that you'd like to continue serving where you are, would like to specify your interests and talents that you can contribute in a new way, or we can reach out to you to help find a way for you to connect. After we've collected all the sign-ups we will reach out to you to help you plug in where you fit best. It's that simple!

If you have any questions, please reach out to Kory, Trish, or Amy Wheeler. Thank you!

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY HOUSE FUNDRAISING

We need your help in fundraising for our Disciples for Habitat house. This year's build, starting in May, will be the 39th sponsored Habitat for Humanity house by the Disciple Churches in the Lexington area. This year's house is being built on Perry St. off of Manchester St. It will be one of five condos. Crestwood's fundraising goal is $20,667. Please make your check out to Crestwood Christian Church with "Habitat" on the memo line or place cash in the pew envelope annotated "Habitat" on the outside. Help us continue this wonderful effort!

Notes of Thanks

Dear Crestwood Family,

Thank you so much for the warm welcome as I begin my new role as Children's Minister. The reception and banner were a beautiful surprise. I am delighted by all the cards and words of encouragement I've received. My office door greets me each morning with the bright, colorful art from the children.

If there is a way that I may serve your family, please don't hesitate to reach out. Our family is looking forward to this wonderful new chapter.

Blessings,
Missy Wallace
Children's Minister
