CRESTWOOD SUPPORTING NEWLY ARRIVED REFUGEES

Crestwood's World Outreach Team has received word from Kentucky Refugee Ministries that we have been matched with newly arriving refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo. We will be assisting 2 Congolese women, ages 24 and 61, who are friends, and will be living together. They are arriving with 2 Congolese men, with whom they are also friends. All have the same U.S. tie and all will be living in the same apartment complex. All four have been matched with supporting groups in the community.

Let us hold these folks in our hearts, and in prayer, as they begin new journeys in a new land. This will be the 13th refugee family for which Crestwood has provided direct assistance, with the first being in 1991.

If you would like to be part of a 'welcome to Lexington' group at the airport, please contact Dabney Parker (dabney@twc.com / 859-608-4655) to receive details about their arrival. Smiling faces of welcome make a wonderful difference when folks arrive in a new land! Help welcome the stranger!

WORLD OUTREACH MINISTRY

SPONSORING FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN MAYFIELD

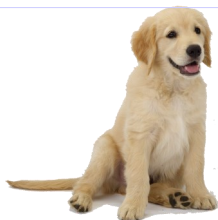

An agency that the World Outreach Ministry Team had been supporting the past few years disbanded at the end of 2021. The Team has determined that the amount budgeted for this agency will be sent to First Christian Church in Mayfield for the rebuilding of their church that was destroyed by the tornado. If anyone would like to add to the amount the World Outreach Ministry Team will be sending, you may do so by check made payable to Crestwood and include FCC Mayfield on the memo line. Similarly, if you wish to give online at Crestwood's donation site, note FCC Mayfield in the "Special Instructions" box.

CARTER'S PASTOR CLASS PROJECT

Donations for the Lexington Human Society can be placed in bins at either church entrance.

DISCIPLES WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

DWM APRIL SERVICE PROJECT: STEP BY STEP

Step By Step is a holistic program working to empower and embolden young single mothers ages 12 to 24. They offer support, mentoring, goal-setting, crisis intervention, while helping them to improve their lives, their families, and their communities through healing, encouragement, faith and education.

Wish list on Amazon: This month we are donating books for their Step Into Reading literacy program. Step Into Reading wish list is on Amazon.com: <https://a.co/j9HVjq3>

$10 Gift cards: They can also use gift cards to Walmart, Target, and Kroger in $10 increments. These are for the monthly incentives they send when moms complete the Step Into Reading activity with their kids each month.

Please place all items in the designated container marked "DWM" in the glassed-in breezeway between Chalice Hall and the Administration Wing.

If you prefer, monetary donations are also accepted – please make checks payable to Crestwood Christian DWM and write "Step By Step" on the memo line. Please send to the DWM Treasurer Carol Rogers.

Anyone is welcome to donate. For further information on this service project, please contact Kathy Stone at 368-8327.

Easter Eggs!

Donations needed for the Youth's Easter Egg Hunt! Please provide stickers, toys, or candy that can fit into an easter egg. All candy must be individually wrapped and can be dropped off outside Steph's office in the admin wing or in the church office during the week. We are so excited to celebrate and have fun together!

PALM SUNDAY WORSHIP DETAILS

Our choir will begin Holy Week by singing Requiem by Gabriel Fauré with a small orchestra in both services at Crestwood on April 10th. Our soloists for the Requiem are Jazmin Salaberrios, soprano and Harrison Hancock, baritone.

Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924) was a French composer, organist, pianist and teacher. The Requiem Op. 48, first performed in 1888, was not composed to the memory of a specific person but, in Fauré's words, "for the pleasure of it." (However, his mother and father had both died not long before and some think that may have influenced him.) It has been described as "a lullaby of death" because of its predominantly gentle tone. Fauré omitted the Dies Irae though reference to the day of judgment appears in the Libera Me, which, he added to the normal liturgical text. There are seven parts to this mass; 1. Introit and Kyrie. 2. Offertory, 3. Sanctus, 4. Pie Jesu, 5. Agnus Dei, 6. Lebera Me, 7. In Paradisum. Fauré revised the Requiem over the years, and several different performing versions are now in use, from the earliest, for small forces, to the final revision with full orchestra.

We hope you will join us in worship that morning as we consider both Christ's entry into Jerusalem and his passion.

THANK YOU, SCOUTS!

The Scouts worked hard and gave some much-needed love and attention to our Red Stripe Van. It looks shiny and new after this Spring cleaning service project. The scouts regularly use our vans and wanted to show their appreciation.

Thank You!

THANK YOU, BRIANNA...

Our Facilities Manager, Brianna May, has left Crestwood to take another job as a silversmith making beautiful jewelry. We're so excited for her! Her last day with us was this past Friday. We thank Brianna for all her hard work during her time with us and we wish her well on this new chapter of life.

AND WELCOME, JIM!

Jim Christi has been hired as our new Facilities Manager, starting April 18. Jim comes to us from Brenda Cowan Elementary School, where he was serving as a custodian. He has also previously worked on the facilities management staff at Chris the King Catholic Church. Let's be sure to make Jim feel welcome as he joins our team!

WHILE WE'RE AT IT...WELCOME, MISSY!

We are thrilled that our new Children's Minister, Missy Wallace, will start with us this coming Sunday. Missy brings a lot of experience and creativity to her new role and we can't wait to see the amazing things she'll do to help our kids grow in their faith. There will be a reception in the Children's Wing after the 10:45 a.m. service to welcome Missy to Crestwood. Please be sure to stop by and say "Hello!"

PALM SUNDAY

PARADE OF THE PALMS

Hey parents! Make sure your kids are in church this Sunday to participate in the Parade of the Palms at the beginning of the 10:45 a.m. service. All kids will meet in the Children's Wing to receive their palms and get ready for the procession. Join us for this festive start to Palm Sunday worship!
