PRACTICING THANKSGIVING THROUGH SERVING

WAYS WE CAN HELP OUR COMMUNITY

GLENDOVER ELEMENTARY FOOD DRIVE

Crestwood will be collecting donations for 50 Glendover Elementary students coping with food insecurity now through December 9. All items can be delivered to the children's wing and a list of items can be found in the children's ministry section on page 8.

ANGEL TREE

Angel Trees will be on display with tags ready to be signed out beginning Sunday, November 6. Please turn in all gifts by Friday, December 9. See page 8 for details.

THE NEST FOOD BOXES

Every autumn, our Youth Ministry collects money to supply food boxes for The Nest - and this year we have a goal of filling 400 boxes! The cost is about $8000 - $20 per box. How can you help? The best and easiest way is to donate money that we will use to purchase food for the boxes. Please label your donation "Food Boxes" so we know your gift is meant to be used towards our food box goal. Thank you so much for helping make this wish a reality - 400 people right here in Lexington will be blessed through this project with a box full of food to feed their families at Christmas!

ALTERNATIVE CHRISTMAS GIVING COMING SOON!

The Alternative Christmas Giving Project will be a bit different this year. The World Outreach Ministry Team considered how we could reach out to the flood victims in Eastern Kentucky this year through our ACG Project. We will be working with the Christian Appalachian Project and one of their partners in the Sandy Hook community, one of the hardest hit areas by the flooding. Funds from our ACG Project will be used to provide a "Merry Christmas" for children in that community. We will observe ACG November 13 - December 4.

A WORD FROM KORY...

Am I going to jinx us if I say we are in the “post-pandemic” period? I’ve done that before, only to have another Greek-letter variant jump up and grab us. Barring any unexpected Omega variants, I think we can say we are now in the process of figuring out life after the Covid pandemic (while recognizing that Covid is still out there and impacting people). As we come out of our fog, I’m beginning to see some trends that show the way the pandemic has impacted our church.

Some of them are positive. For example, we are experiencing an influx of new people, including families with children. I believe the pandemic caused many of us to rethink our priorities, and for some people that has meant placing a bigger emphasis on church in their life. I expect we will continue to see new people in the pews each Sunday. So, if you see someone you don’t know, be sure to introduce yourself!

I believe this is indicative of a larger trend at Crestwood. Not long after I came here in 2009, we started to see growth in our worship attendance, especially among young families. This stayed steady for so many years that we had to renovate and expand our Children’s Wing to make room for everyone! Now, I’m seeing similar signs, including several new members in the past few months and the welcome of addition of three new babies into our church family (we love you Eleanor, Jack, and Rhodes). God is indeed good!

But these positive trends are countered with some that cause me concern. Like just about every church, our worship attendance is down. Some of that is because we have a percentage of our church family joining us online. I’m so glad we are able to offer this way of worshipping on Sunday for those who can’t join us in person. My fear is that some folks are using this as a matter of convenience rather than necessity. And I get that! It’s a lot easier to stay home in your pajamas and log into worship than to get dressed and show up in person. And yet, the church family suffers when we are not all together. I’ll be interested to see how this attendance trend changes as we approach the holidays, but I encourage everyone to attend in person if possible.

Another impact of the pandemic on Crestwood is our pattern of giving. Historically, the church has added new members at a rate that has kept up with members we have lost. But the last two years have brought a couple of changes to that. First, we’ve lost a lot of good faithful members, including a run of double-digit funerals in the span of three months. The loss of those folks has taken a huge toll on the spirit of Crestwood.

During that same two-year period, we were not worshipping in person for 14 months, which means we were not welcoming guests and helping them find a church home. We only added a handful of members during the Covid period while losing a far greater number of our most faithful servants. The outcome of this is that we experienced a gap in the addition of new members, which impacts both our lay leadership and our giving. We are still climbing out of the pandemic and catching up with the losses we sustained.

In spite of all that, there is still so much to be excited about! We have an absolutely cracker-jack staff, the best I’ve ever worked with. We are so blessed to have such dedicated people serving here. We have some exciting plans in place for the next few months, including several ways we can be Christ’s hands and feet to the those in need in our community. Our children and youth are learning about God’s love for them in life-changing ways. As I listen to my colleagues talk about the challenges facing their faith communities, I realize what an amazing church Crestwood is.

I hope you will consider how you can be a part of that. That means discerning where you can use your gifts to serve and how you can share your resources to fund our work. We have big plans for 2023, but to accomplish them, we’re going to need everyone’s generosity with your time, talent, and treasure. I believe we are coming out of this pandemic even stronger than before, and I hope you’ll help us do that. God is good, Crestwood! Let’s shine our light!

YOUTH CORNER

By Steph Wallace

November is upon us, bringing so many wonderful events to our Youth Ministry!!! To start with, we will enjoy hearing from guest speaker Kelly Hale on Sunday, November 6. Kelly will share her personal journey into ministry and her work as a chaplain. Then, on Sunday, November 20, all youth are invited to attend Kelly's ordination service here at Crestwood. It will be followed by a reception in Chalice Hall, which the youth will help set up for and assist with clean up afterwards, as our way of thanking Kelly for spending time with us and to help celebrate her ordination.

BOX BUILDING DAY IS COMING! Sunday, November 13, from 4:00-6:00PM, ALL youth are invited to be at church for the Nest food boxes box building competition! Teams of two will compete to see who can assemble the most boxes in 90 minutes. Prizes will be awarded! Then, from 5:30 - 6:00PM, we will enjoy a fellowship dinner together in the CYF room. You won't want to miss this!

Please keep Sunday, December 4 open for the next big event - that is when we will be filling the food boxes to be picked up by The Nest! We have 400 boxes to fill with food this year, so we will need all the help we can get - all parents and family members are welcome to join us that day from 4:00-6:00PM in the Mission Wing. Thanks to our hard work, 400 families will receive a box filled with food in time for Christmas. This community service project is our biggest one of the year, and I am so proud of the work Crestwood Youth Ministry does for The Nest! I am so excited to see those boxes get filled and stacked in the CYF room this year, because I know the smiles and hope they will bring to many hungry families around Lexington!

Until I see you in church, may the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Dear Friends,

What a beautiful time of year! Creation has a way of astounding me every fall. The color of sky blue that only appears in October and the colors of the trees that seem to glow have a way of energizing the soul. During my recent vacation, I got to witness the majesty of this amazing world God created and share time with my family and friends.

It is so good to wallow in the blessings we have. There are times when life can pull us in varied directions and cause us to lose focus on what matters. One of the trips I took was to go home to West Virginia. I babysat my grand niece and nephew one day. There is nothing like taking nature walks with a 4 and 7 year old to help you see the world in a new way. My mom and I took day trips through the mountains. At one point we traveled about 12 miles on a one lane dirt road around the mountain side! One of the highlights for me was when we traveled to the places my mom spent her childhood. It was wonderful hearing her tell me stories of growing up by the various creeks and up certain hollows. Knowing your roots and revisiting your stories are part of growing into who you become. I come from good people and beautiful places.

As I reflected on my WV adventures and packed for the beach, I was overwhelmed with gratitude for my family, my roots, and the gifts on which my life has been built and nurtured. With toes in the sand for the second week, I had the opportunity to “be still and know.” Each night we watched the sunset and were in awe of the colors that followed the sun dipping below the horizon. It was a beautiful reminder that what looks like the end may very well be the beginning of something beautiful.

Thank you for reading my post vacation rambles. May it stir you to reflect on your past, ponder your roots, and look for the beauty of each moment and season.

Blessed to share the journey,

Trish

Children's Ministry News

Dear Crestwood Families,

Missy Wallace

As we prepare to welcome the Thanksgiving season, our hearts are filled with gratitude for the many blessings God provides. The advent season is around the corner and gift shopping has already begun. It's the time of year filled with generosity as we have a greater awareness for the needs of our community and reflect on the abundance in our own lives.

Whether it's donating a can of food or offering a kind smile for an exhausted retail worker, know that you hold a special place in the greatest story of all time. May we be a good steward of the intangible gifts God has given us through the power of the Holy Spirit. Together as one body, we can make a difference in the world through the unconditional love of Christ.

LOOKING BACK on OCTOBER 12 - 47 people gathered to decorate and deliver 40 pumpkins for our shut-ins and congregational members who've recently endured a season of loss. Special thank you to all who participated.

NOVEMBER SERVICE PROJECT: THOMSON-HOOD VETERANS CENTER

Thomson Hood Veterans Center is a 285 bed long term care facility that has served more than 2,782 veterans from all branches of the military since August of 1981. It provides skilled nursing care and rehabilitation to both male and female veterans.

During the month of November, members of the DWM groups will be selecting names of residents so that they may purchase holiday gifts for their chosen recipient. The veterans that are "adopted" by the ladies of the Mary Martha, Naomi and Dorcas groups have no family and might not receive a gift otherwise. In addition to the gift giving, there are items listed below that the Thomson-Hood facility can use to serve as "prizes" for games that are a regular part of the residents' weekly activity:

- Neck pillows
- Walmart gift cards
- Men's and women's lotion
- Body wash
- Snack cakes, snack crackers, soft candy, individual pudding cups
- Gospel and Country music CDs (older artists)
- Break away lanyards
- Watches

All donations, with the exception of the gifts purchased for individual residents, may be placed in the church's Giving Lane marked DWM, under the sign for Disciples Women's Ministries. This area is in the hallway leading to the Administrative wing of the church.

For those who wish to make a monetary contribution, you may write a check made payable to Crestwood Christian DWM with the letters THVC in the memo line. Please mail your check to DWM treasurer Monte LaFrana 4000 Webber Way Lexington, Ky 40514

For more information, you may contact DWM service coordinator Tracy Lovan at 859-948-1955 (call or text) or email at thelovans@gmail.com

BRADFORD CLASS

One of Crestwood's Adult Sunday School Classes has a new name! For a while without a formal name, we are now the Bradford Class. We have taken the name in honor of Lawrence Bradford, a long-time pillar of Crestwood. For years in the past, Mr. Bradford led a class which became known by his name. Our classroom in the Mission Center, Room 10 is named for him. The new Bradford Class hopes to mirror his dedication to the Christian community. We invite you to visit our class each Sunday at 9:30 and join in our lively discussions. Our varied topics center around the issues of Christian responsibilities and responses within an increasingly complex world. Class members rotate leadership for the discussions each week. At the present time we are discussing chapters from Martin Thielen's book "What's the Least I can Believe and Still be a Christian: A Guide to What Matters Most." We encourage you to come check us out and join in our conversations.

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

Every Wednesday at 1:00 PM Dan Pence teaches a Bible Study in the Bradford Room. All are welcome! Currently this class is studying the Parables of Jesus.
