KENTUCKY DISCIPLES WOMEN'S CHORAL RETREAT

CRESTWOOD
FEBRUARY 24-26

Crestwood is hosting the return of the Kentucky Disciples Women's Choral Retreat. Begins on Friday evening and concludes with a performance in the 10:45 AM worship service Sunday morning.

Register ASAP via the mail-in registration form, or online at www.ccinky.net.

Contact Shari Caldarelli at shari.caldarelli@gmail.com, or call the Madison Avenue Christian Church office (859.261.0226) with any questions.

We are looking forward to seeing both new and familiar faces at the return of this fun event for all women who like to sing! Please join us in celebrating this performance at Crestwood on Feb. 26.

LET'S WIN THE SOUPER BOWL

On Sunday, Feb. 12, we'll celebrate the Super Bowl by participating in the Souper Bowl of Caring! We're asking everyone coming to worship to bring a can of soup to be donated to our Blessing Box, the Glendover Elementary Resource Center, and a local food pantry. You can also bring in cans of soup anytime the week before. Help us feed the hungry in the community as we cheer on our favorite team and/or watch the awesome commercials.

CRESTWOOD CRASH COURSE

Are you new to Crestwood and would like more information about the church? Or have you been here awhile and want a refresher on this wonderful congregation? Join us for our Crestwood Crash Course! We'll meet at 3 PM in the Bradford Room.

Feb. 5 – How do I get involved?
The programs and ministries of Crestwood

A WORD FROM KORY...

I'm writing this article from the airport in Dallas (don't be too jealous, it's in the 40s here), where I'm flying home from attending the Disciples Senior Pastors conference. This yearly gathering is for the pastors of the 100 largest Disciples churches and features a noted speaker, great fellowship, and time away from the demands of our congregations to do some big-picture thinking. Sadly, this is the last of these conferences because determining congregational size is hard to do when worship attendance is no longer reliably measured. When you have 200 people in the sanctuary and 100 views online, how do you determine your actual attendance?

This year's focus for the conference was on congregational change and conflict. Thankfully, conflict is something Crestwood has very little of. Honestly, it's the healthiest church I know of and has been since its founding. But change is something all churches go through, and the last few years have exacerbated that. We have not so much chosen to change as we've been forced to change, figuring out how to weather a national pandemic, how to stay united during a contentious political era, and how to come back together as a community in ways that honor Christ and include all those who call Crestwood their church home.

What I learned this week in Dallas is that Crestwood is not alone in trying to figure all this out. Regardless of the size of the church or its location, every congregation is asking the same kinds of questions: Who are we now? How do we live out the gospel in this changed world? What does our community look like post-Covid? Our group of about 30 pastors spent some time lamenting what we've lost, but even more time dreaming about what God can do through this time of transition.

But transition means change, and as a church (and human beings!) we don't always like change. God knows, we've had more than our share of it in the last few years! And yet, for us to not just survive but thrive, we're going to have to continue to innovate and ask what it means to be Christ followers in this evolving world. The world is moving too fast for us to settle into what is comfortable and easy. After all, Christ never called us to stay where we are. He called us to follow him.

The challenge is that we don't have a roadmap for what that means. We can't read books about the last worldwide pandemic that shut down the church for 14 months to glean insights or wisdom. We have to figure this out, but we don't have to do it alone.

We have each other, we have other churches going through the same thing, and we have the love and grace of Christ, who walks with us.

So, we need to stay attentive to what God is saying to us. Through scripture, through sermons, through study and prayer, God has a word for us for this very time and place. In addition, we need to listen to each other. As one person at the conference said, "We need to check in instead of checking out." I believe the Holy Spirit speaks through us to make God's will known for us, as individuals and as a congregation. That's why we need as many voices as possible sharing what they hear God is saying.

We'll be doing that through our strategic planning process, which I plan to resurrect soon. We had embarked on this journey when the pandemic hit and we've not yet been able to get it going again. But I'm committed to forming a team that will help us discern God's will for us and paint a picture of what Crestwood is called to do in the next three to five years. It's both exciting and scary as we open ourselves up to God's leading. I have no doubt that we will be called to do amazing things in God's name. But I also have no doubt that this call will involve change.

So, we can choose to stay the same and ensure our complacency, or we can choose to take the leap into whatever future God has planned for us. I know which option is safer, but I also know which one is more exciting. Are you ready, Crestwood? Are you ready to ask God what God has planned for us? It might not be what we expect. It might mean we have to break out of our comfort zones. It might mean we look different in five years than we do today. But, really, is there any other way to live this life of faith? So...let's leap together and trust God's presence with us as we fly.

TRISH TALK

Dear Friends,

"If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it." 1 Corinthians 12:26

Being part of the body of Christ means we are connected to one another. These relationships are vital to nurturing our faith and growing in faithfulness. This doesn't just happen. It takes intentionality. At Crestwood it is good to be a part of smaller groups within the congregation where we build relationships and get to really know one another. This bonding happens in choir, DWM groups, Men's breakfast, Sunday School classes, youth groups, ministry teams, and the like. Whether we are a part of a small group or only the larger congregation, it is important that we care for one another. Crestwood works hard to offer this care and bear witness to God's presence in the midst of life's challenges. We do this through Pastoral Care. Kory and I are available to any and all of you when you need us. We do our best to be present when you are facing life's challenges.

In addition to our presence we partner with the Elders of the church. Weekly they take communion and visit our Heart to Heart members and others who may need a visit. We are blessed at Crestwood to have a specialized team of trained Stephen Ministers. These folks have been through 50+ hours of training to learn to walk along side us during particular challenges.

In addition to these efforts of care we have Heart to Heart and Caregivers and are looking to start a new ministry: Care-a-Van (think God's Uber or Guber; we thought Care-A-Van may be more a suitable name). See the articles for more information.

Friends, let us connect to God and to one another and let us expect blessings to abound!

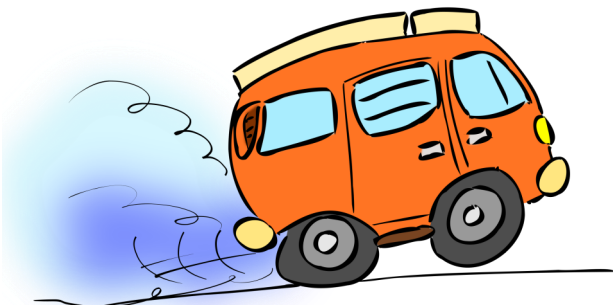

Blessed to share the journey,

Trish

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

LOOKING FOR 2023-2024 LEADERSHIP

The Nominating Committee begins its work this month recruiting leaders for Crestwood's upcoming program year (July 2023 - June 2024). The Nominating Committee's duties include recruiting candidates for leadership across Crestwood's programs. The committee selects chairpersons for ministry teams and standing committees. Deacons and officers of the congregation are elected by the entire congregation. For those offices, the Nominating Committee will offer a slate of proposed officers and deacons to the Administrative Board later this spring. The Board will present the slate for a vote of the congregation at the June congregational meeting. If you are interested in being involved in the life of Crestwood in a new way (or reprising a former role), or have a suggestion for a great candidate, please contact the Nominating Committee now.

If you would be interested in serving on a committee but not being in charge, we can still help you connect with opportunities to be more involved in our church. Please direct inquiries to the nominating committee chairperson, Jay Prather, at jayprather@fastmail.net.

FEBRUARY MEN'S BREAKFAST

Our next Men's Breakfast will be Saturday, Feb. 11, at 8 AM in the Bradford Room. All men of Crestwood are invited to attend. Please RSVP to Kory if you plan on being there or be willing to help prepare. Join us for good food and fellowship!

Children's Ministry

Missy Wallace

I'm in awe of how Crestwood continues to share the love of Christ with the same giddy enthusiasm as a child at a Valentine's Day party. In continuation of our partnership with Glendover Elementary, we will be hosting a family night mission project on February 8. On February 12, we will be celebrating the "SOUPER Bowl" by bringing canned soup to church before we dive into a day of football fun.

As we welcome the season of lent, we are preparing an immersive experience for children to meet the twelve best friends of Jesus and learn firsthand the mystery of Easter. Believe it or not, it's time to pencil in dates for Vacation Bible School as calendars fill with summer vacations, camps, and sports activities.

Children's Ministry is so much more than program, we are a season that never stops planting. Our arms are welcome for anyone who wishes to volunteer in loving our little ones. Whether it's Sunday mornings, a one-time event, or offering your skill in a specific area, we would love to have you join us in the faith journey of our kids. Always know how much we appreciate your love and support.

FEBRUARY SERVICE PROJECT: THE NEST

The Nest is an agency that has been serving the Lexington area since 1977. It is a lifeline for all individuals and families in crisis, facing adversity or who have unexpected needs. Programs are free for early childhood education, family assistance for basic human needs, counseling and advocacy for survivors of intimate partner violence and education and support for parents. Everyone who needs the services of The Nest can rest assured that safety is number one as this agency prioritizes the mental, physical and emotional wellbeing of their clients, team and partners.

The Nest provides caregivers equal access to high quality child care providers, personal hygiene necessities, car seats and children's clothing.

Counseling is provided for intimate partner violence in both individual and group settings as well as legal advocacy for survivors.

Parenting classes for female and male caregivers that focus on healthy parenting are provided in order to assist caregivers in helping them to become skilled and knowledgeable caregivers for the children that they support.

This month Crestwood's service project is The Nest. They only need one item for February to support their Diaper Drive. Diapers may be placed in the Giving Lane (located in the hallway that leads to the Administrative Wing):

-DIAPERS in all sizes for babies and toddlers

For those who wish to make a monetary contribution, you may write a check made payable to Crestwood Christian DWM with the letters NEST in the memo line. Please mail your check to DWM treasurer Monte LaFrana 4000 Webber Way Lexington, Ky 40514

CREATING A MEMORIAL FOR SUE ANN COWGILL

You are invited to donate a piece of material (cotton, silk, flannel, corduroy, fleece, etc.) which will be made into a tangible wall hanging to be placed in the Crestwood Children's Wing to commemorate Sue Ann Cowgill's love for today's children as our future at Crestwood and their education about God's love.

The material could also be clothing that is sentimental to you or makes you think of Sue Ann – for example, a scarf, sweater, shirt...

Please place the pieces of material in the plastic bin marked "Sue Ann Cowgill's Memorial" outside the Lollis Chapel door.

The last date for collection of the material is Sunday, February 19, 2023.
