LENT 2024 SERMON SERIES

Peter is one of the most enigmatic characters in all the Bible. In some moments, he's an exemplar of faith, praised by Jesus for his courage. In others, he's wishy-washy, condemned by Jesus for his doubt. So, will the real Peter please stand up? For our Lenten sermon series, we're going to look more closely at Peter, the disciple who called Jesus "the Christ" but also denied even knowing him. Join us on this journey as we learn about Peter, the "Flawed Yet Faithful" disciple.

A WORD FROM KORY

Are you sick? It seems that most of the people I know have some kind of illness, from Covid to the flu to the general crud that seems to have infiltrated Lexington. I just recently finally stopped coughing after what felt like months. It's amazing how we take something so simple as unobstructed breathing for granted. You don't realize how important it is until you can't do it!

In a recent sermon, I asked the question: "How can we make sure that the breaths we have between the one we are taking now and the last one we'll take will be used wisely?" I continue to ponder that question in my own heart. While we may think we have unlimited breaths, in our hearts we all know that someday we'll take our last one. I had the privilege of being with my dad when he died and watched as his breaths got fewer and farther in between. While most of the time we may not think about this ("Ugh, too morbid!"), Lent is a season for us to contemplate the finitude of our existence. From dust we have been made and to dust we shall return.

That story of our creation reminds me of this. In the beginning of Genesis, God forms Adam from the ground, gathering together the dust and the dirt and shaping it into a human being. But Adam wasn't alive until God breathed into him, infusing him with the breath of life that allowed Adam to inhale and exhale. From that point forward, every breath Adam took – just like every breath we take – is a gift from God.

Now, I don't expect that we'll literally use all our breaths in service to God. But symbolically, if we recognize the gift of life God has graciously granted us, it gives each breath a renewed significance. Each breath, each hour, each day, is an opportunity to serve God by sharing God's love and grace in this world. Often, when someone is trying to persuade another person who won't be swayed, the response is, "Don't waste your breath!" I wonder if God isn't saying the same thing to us?

This Lenten season, I want to encourage you to think about how you might use your breaths to get closer to God. Maybe it's slowing down your breaths to spend time in prayer or reading scripture. Maybe it's speeding up your breaths as you work to serve someone through volunteering. Maybe you use your breath to give voice to an issue that is causing you concern or to a cause that needs more advocacy.

Whatever you do, just being mindful of the value of each breath is a way to acknowledge our mortality and to draw us closer to God through praise and thanksgiving. We can breathe in the Spirit of God and breathe out the fears and anxieties that separate us from the One who reached down into the dirt to create us. However you choose to honor God, never forget that this life is the only one we have, and we are called to live in such a way that honors the God of each of us and the God of all of us. Don't waste your breath.

CHANGES TO PRAYER LIST

At Crestwood, we believe prayer is powerful and effective! Each name on our Joys and Concerns list is someone with a story, who needs to feel God's presence, and it's an honor to be able to lift them up in prayer.

When we receive a name for the prayer list, it stays on the list for one month. A name can always be taken off sooner or added back if requested.

Several people have requested that a person stay on the list longer than one month, so we're creating a long-term prayer list. This list will run each month in the Crest. If a requester wants a name to stay on the prayer list longer than a month, we'll gladly transfer them to our long-term prayer list after a month on the regular prayer list.

LITURGISTS NEEDED

Lend your voice to our worship services! We're looking for liturgists for both services on Sunday morning. The liturgist leads the congregation in the Call to Worship and reads the first scripture (both of which are provided during the week before). We'd love to have you be part of leading worship on Sunday, so please sign up. Here's the link:

NOTES OF APPRECIATION

Dear Crestwood, the Kentuckians Chorus really appreciates all that you do for us! We feel very welcome here. Please use our gift as a token of our appreciation to further your mission.

Many thanks, Michael French,
President, The Kentuckian Chorus

This contribution is to thank the church for sharing the Bradford Room with us each month. We are appreciative of a safe and hospitable place to meet and hope this monetary thank-you will help a bit to provide the same space and opportunity for others.

Marlene Young, Chapter F, PEO

Dear Crestwood Christian Church,

Since 1976 Arbor Youth Services has been providing emergency shelter to Lexington's children in crisis. Monetary gifts are critical for Arbor to fulfill its mission to end youth homelessness by providing a safe and supportive environment to youth who have suffered abuse, abandonment, or are at risk of victimization. We envision a community where our services are no longer needed and every child has a safe, stable, and warm place to call home.

Thank you for your donation of $395 on 11/7/23.

Stephanie Spires,
Interim Executive Director, Arbor Youth Services

JOIN US FOR PICK-A-POTLUCK!

Our church has so many wonderful members and we have the perfect opportunity for you to get to know them even better: Pick-a-potluck! These dinners will be hosted in members' homes, with the host providing the entrée and the guests bringing side dishes. You may already know some of these hosts well and are tempted to sign up to spend an evening with your friends. However, we are encouraging everyone to sign up for a dinner that will allow you to have some informal fellowship with someone whom you may have seen only across the sanctuary until now.

We have six dates from which to choose, ranging from March 9 through March 29. Space is limited, and reservations are required at least one week in advance in order to allow the host to contact all the guests. To sign up, CLICK HERE for Sign Up Genius. When signing up, each person equals one spot, so sign up each attendee individually. If Sign Up Genius isn't your thing, talk to a church staff member or email Saralyn at:

Saralyn.kingsolver@fayette.kyschools.us

We look forward to hearing about all of the dinners and would love to see photos of your gathering!

STAR WORDS STORIES

I was really struck by the New Year sermon and the assignment of star words. I picked up "Believe." I am a fairly typical first child/type-A/Enneagram 1 so an 'assignment' works well for me. Also I tend to question things - maybe not all the way to doubt, but scratching around it. Having this word assigned to me and praying and reflecting on it has reminded me of my belief in God and God's belief in/love for me. But I really think it has reminded me to take this love and belief into my relationships with others. I am "believing" the best of people; my spouse, my teenager, my friends. If I'm tempted to stray into the spiral of "I don't know, what's the motivation behind something," I stop and think, "I believe in God and God's love for me - a very imperfect person, shown in the ultimate gift of Jesus." Then I try to reflect that love into my relationships by believing in them. It has been a small, subtle shift into a positive framework for 2024 - all anchored in my belief in God.

I have the star on my refrigerator, so it is something I see throughout the day, and it reminds me to connect with God - even just momentarily - and restate my belief.

Children's Ministry

Missy Wallace

Dear Crestwood Families,

The children have been busy on Sunday mornings learning music with Ms. Katelyn and listening to our stories about the life of Jesus in preparation for Easter. Sunday school attendance is on the rise and Bridge students have been filling our prayer pockets with requests which are being prayed over by our DWM group. Pastor's class kicked off Sunday with ten students diving deeper into their faith. Lent is also officially underway.

I love the growth we experience in this season as we reflect on our humanity and draw closer in intimacy with God. On our church calendar there are multiple opportunities for our families to connect and share God's unconditional love. A new Sunday school class for parents recently kicked off with room for more people to join. We have a family mission project underway in Chalice Hall this Sunday from 4:00 PM – 6:00 PM for parents and children to make sandwiches for the Hope Mobile. Please join us as you are able as we prepare our hearts to welcome our resurrected Savior.

Blessings,
Missy Wallace
